PULASKI, TENN.

FRIDAY MORNING, NOV. 9, 1866.

College Meeting last Monday.

Pursuant to announcement, a meeting of the citizens of Giles county was held at the Court House in Pulaski on Monday, 5th inst., for the purpose of taking into consideration the educational interest of the community and the feasibility of establishing one or more good high schools at Pulaski.

It is a remarkable fact that there is but one male school of any note in the State, Cumberland University, at Lebanon, all, or nearly all, having been destroyed during the war, and it is estimated that, during the past year, at least $50,000 was sent from Giles county for educational purposes. Had we a good school in our midst this expenditure would have been used at home, and, together with that of students from a distance, constituted a revenue to the county of at least $150,000 or $200,000 per annum, aside from the advantage of parents having their children at home. This, of itself, is a great consideration, aside from the many other advantages to the entire community.

On motion of Maj. T. M. Jones, Col. A. L. ABERNATHY was called to the Chair, and R. R. REED and SILAS FLOURNOY requested to act as Secretaries of the meeting.

Col. SOLON E. ROSE delivered one of his usual eloquent appeals in behalf of the measure, urging upon the citizens the necessity of immediate and decisive action. Gen. Jno. C. BROWN and Hon. Jas. McCallum also addressed the meeting, urging the prompt cooperation of every citizen in the county.

A fund must be raised to liquidate the indebtedness of the old College, and to this end every one should put their shoulders to the wheel and all work together to the attainment of the end in view.

You should take into consideration that your property will be enhanced in value almost two fold. Why is it that landed property in the neighboring counties of Maury, Rutherford, Davidson and Williamson commands higher prices by 40 to 60 per cent. than Giles, when it is well known that the land of Giles is the best and most productive in Middle Tennessee? It is attributable to their schools and the enterprise of their citizens. In each of those counties there is at least one or more good female schools, while we have none.

There is every benefit to be derived from the establishment of good schools, to the farmer, merchant, mechanic and every branch of business and all citizens alike. Without schools and other institutions of public interest, we can but hope to ever remain at the foot of the hill of enterprise, and retrograde rather than advance in point of intelligence and refinement, and the youth of our country grow up in ignorance and profligacy. Then let us make a vigorous effort, and place Pulaski and Giles county at the top notch and afford our posterity every facility for acquiring an education and give employment to those of our citizens so competent as teachers and in whom we have so much confidence.

On motion of Maj. NATH. ADAMS it was proposed to take subscriptions payable in six, twelve and eighteen months in equal instalments—payments to begin when the Trustees shall have raised a fund of $25,000.

After some little discussion this was deferred for the present; in the course of which Hon. THOS. MARTIN announced to the meeting that he had received a check for $100 from a citizen of Nashville, not at all interested in Pulaski, in furtherance of the object.

Maj. B. P. ROY subscribed $100 in the name of his firm, Stratton, Cheeny & Roy, of Nashville.

On motion, the following gentlemen were appointed a temporary Board of Trustees: Messrs. THOS. MARTIN, S. E. ROSE, T. M. JONES, J. C. BROWN, N. ADAMS.

On motion of Maj. ADAMS, a committee of three in each Civil District in the county are to be appointed to canvass the districts in aid of this purpose. Will be announced in future.

Hon. THOS. MARTIN proposed to be one of fifteen subscribing $30,000 to prosecute the building, &c., and if not sufficient, to "bring in the trimmings" afterward; or would subscribe $5,000 to aid the Trustees in raising $50,000—conditioned that that sum should be raised. Bullly for Mr. MARTIN.

Adjourned to Saturday, 17th inst., when all citizens favoring the establishment of good schools in our midst, and the ladies "especially," are invited and earnestly solicited to attend.

From Mexico:

A dispatch of the 6th inst. says Maximilian has left the City of Mexico for Vera Cruz, en route for Europe.

General Sherman and Col. Campbell, our Mexican Minister, will sail in the steamer Esquibel in a few days, to assume a protectorate of that Republic until a general election for President and Congress can be held.

County Meeting last Monday.

A large number of citizens of Giles county assembled at the Court House on Monday, 5th inst., for the purpose of considering the matter of the recent election.

On motion of Hon. T. M. JONES, Col. A. L. ABERNATHY was called to the Chair, and R. R. REED and SILAS FLOURNOY requested to act as Secretaries.

The Chairman briefly announced the purpose of the meeting, explaining that by virtue of the Governor's Proclamation an election was held on the 1st inst., for Representative in the General Assembly. That there are less than one hundred voters in the county, by report of the Commissioner of Registration. In consequence of some misgivings, false representations and misunderstandings, the polls were not opened in many of the Districts; so that there could not be an expression of the sentiments of the people.

Hon. JAS. McCALLUM then addressed the meeting and presented the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the people of Giles county are desirous of manifesting their ready acquiescence in all measures calculated to promote peace and harmony at home and abroad, and the general welfare of the whole nation, and that we are disposed to fraternize with all law-abiding citizens.

Resolved, That the people of Giles county desire the services of our fellow-citizens, JAMES A. JACKSON, in the present session of our State Legislature, and to this end request him to claim his certificate of election thereto and take his seat and serve as a member thereof.

Pending the adoption of the above, a few remarks were made by Hon. T. M. JONES and Gen. Jno. C. BROWN, endorsing them.

On motion, the resolutions were unanimously adopted, and Messrs. McCallum, Albert Buford, Hardy, Sanders, Edwards, Hart and Chas. Abernathy were appointed a committee to wait upon Mr. Jackson and inform him of the action of the meeting.

Subsequently the following correspondence was handed to us for publication:

Correspondence.

Hon. JOHN A. JACKSON: The action of the meeting held this day, to take into consideration the result of the late election, was such as to urge the importance of your occupying the vacant seat. In view of this, on motion the undersigned were appointed a committee to tender you the considerations of the meeting, and to request you to procure the proper certificate of election and take your seat in the Legislative Body of the State of Tennessee.

Committee.

Nov. 5, 1866.

GENTLEMEN: Your favor informing me of the proceedings of a public meeting this day held at the court-house has been received. For this expression of their confidence, please accept for yourselves and the citizens composing the meeting my grateful acknowledgments. The election ordered, from some cause, as I am informed by the sheriff, has not been held in accordance with the law; and of course no certificate of election will be issued to any one. I deeply regret that the people of our county, having so deep an interest in the questions agitating the country, have no voice in the Legislature.

I have done all I can, and shall continue to use every effort in my power, whether as a public or private citizen, to restore peace and harmony and prosperity to our once happy, but now distracted and oppressed country.

Permit me, gentlemen, through you to tender to the citizens and to yourselves my high regards. Yours respectfully,
JOHN A. JACKSON.

Hon. JAMES McCALLUM,
WM. SAUNDERS,
JAMES M. HARDY,
JAS. M. EDWARDS,
CHAS. C. ABERNATHY, Sen.,
WM. HART.

EDITOR CITIZEN—Dear Sir: We have bought from our customers $1,696 worth of dried fruit this fall and summer, for which the cash has been realized. We believe as much more could and would have been saved if the people had known that they could dispose of it so easily. We are surrounded by other business houses which of course get their share of the fruit trade.

We do not believe that any neighborhood can beat this, and not to assume egotism, we do not believe that any community in the State surpasses ours in industry and economy, especially the female part of our community. Your friends,
EXELL & MCGUIRE.

Millville, Oct. 26, 1866.

Death of Hon. M. P. Gentry.
Hon. M. P. Gentry died Nov. 23, 1866, at half past nine o'clock, A. M., at the residence of Mrs. Mary Ann Hoggatt, Clover Bottom, seven miles east of Nashville, on the Lebanon Turnpike.

A brighter spirit never lived or died. Col. Gentry was possessed of social qualities of the highest order, and was endeared to a large circle of friends.

"So fades the pride of former days—
So glory's dream is o'er;
And the heart that once beat high for praise,
Now feels its thrill no more."

Scene at the Counting Room of a Morning Newspaper.

Enter a man of Teutonic tendencies, considerably the worse for last night's spree.
Tutor.—(To the man at the desk) "If you please, sir I want der baper mit dis mornings. One vot hash de names of der beoples vot kills cholera all de ville."

He was handed a paper, and after looking it over in a confused way he said:
"Vill you pe so goot as ter read de names vat don't have de cholera any more too soon shust now, and see if Carl Geisenkoop-offen has got 'em?"

The man at the desk very obligingly read the list, the Teuton listening with trembling attention, wiping the perspiration from his brow meanwhile, in great excitement.—When the list was completed, the name of Carl Geisenkoop—, well no matter about the whole name, it wasn't there. The Teuton's face brightened up, and he exclaimed:
"You not find 'em?"

CLERK—"No such name there, sir."
Tutor.—(Seizing him warily by the hand)—"This ish nice—this ish some faps—that ish my name. I pin trunk se never vas, and py tam I vas fraid I vas geit ted mit der cholera, and didn't know it. Min Gott I vas scart!"

The Emperor of Austria is not satisfied with the result of the late war. He has learned no other lesson from his defeat than that of an unconquerable hate and an undying desire for revenge. He is already massing once more his legions. Every man, almost every child, capable of bearing arms, is to be taught the art of war, and measures are being taken to render possible a vast conscription of the entire population of the Austrian Empire. The dogged obstinacy of the Hapsburgs is as rampant as ever, and the otherwise eminently praiseworthy young Emperor is determined to strike one more blow for the restoration of his once mighty empire to her old rank in the councils of nations.

A Frenchman who had been in India, speaking of tiger hunts, remarked:
"When ze Frenchman hunt ze tigare, ahl ze sport is grand, magnifique! But when ze tigare hunt ze Frenchman, ouchl zere is ze very devil to pay!"

A VALUABLE RECIPE.—A correspondent of an exchange writes that six years' experience has convinced him that a coat of gum copal varnish applied to the soles of boots and shoes, and repeated as it dries, until the pores are filled and the surface shines like polished mahogany, will make the soles waterproof, and also cause them to last much longer than ordinary soles.

Northern Elections.
The Radical Disunionists, as the returns show, carried every State in Tuesday's elections, but by such overwhelming majorities as they predicted and we anticipated—but by a demonstration of sufficient strength as to induce gloomy forebodings for the future.—Nash. Banner, 8th.

It is said that the Pope will remove to Jerusalem, making that city the capital of Latin Christianity. The Greeks, too, are going to attempt to revive the Greek Empire of the Middle Ages, with Constantinople for its capital, and St. Sophia for the Cathedral.

An African baby elephant has arrived in New York for Yankee Robinson. It is only 38 inches high.

Some other Yankees we wot of, have got on their hands a full grown African elephant with a capacious mouth and maw, and a formidable proboscis "swinging around the circle." His performances don't promise to be remunerative, either.—Nash. Dispatch.

The Augusta Constitutionalist, of 18th ult., says of Alexander H. Stephens: "We had, on yesterday, the honor of a visit from that illustrious Georgian—one of the last of those grand men who made American Republicanism a glory in the earth, and live to see it a pollution. It will be gratifying to his many friends in all sections to know that his health is measurably restored. We have seldom seen him looking so well. Like Phocion, amid the discords of Greece, he stands the same incorruptible and philosophic sage, amid the broils of the United States."

Eternity.
"Eternity has no gray hairs!" The flowers fade, the heart withers, man grows old and dies; the world lies down in the sepulchre of ages, but time writes no wrinkles on the brow of eternity.

Eternity! Stupendous thought! The ever-present, unborn, undecaying—the endless chain, compassing the life of God—the golden thread, entwining the universe. Earth hath its beauties, but Time shrouds them for the grave; its honors, they are but the gilded sepulchres; its possessions are but toys of changing fortune; its pleasures are but bursting bubbles. Not so in the untiring bourne. In the dwelling of the Almighty, can come no footstep of decay. Its day will know no darkening—eternal splendors forbid the approach of night. Its fountains will never fail, they are fresh from the eternal throne. Its glory will never wane, for there is the ever present God. Its harmonies will never cease; exhaustless love supplies the song.

A petition for a more stringent jury law is in circulation in Memphis. It says not one of the numerous trials for murder in that city since the reorganization of the State Government has resulted in convictions.

EMERSON ETTERIDGE is mentioned as a candidate for Governor of Tennessee, to succeed Brownlow.

It must not be forgotten that we are to have a grand meteoric display on the 12th inst. Astronomers say it will be an unusually brilliant affair.

The Legislature.
No quorum was present in either House yesterday. Less than half a dozen Senators and twenty-seven Representatives answered to their names.

SOME idea of the distressed condition to which the people of this State and of the South have been reduced by the war, may be derived from the fact that the tax collector of Rhea county advertises for sale over 15,000 acres of land belonging to delinquent tax payers, and that in no case does the amount due the county exceed five dollars.—Banner.

The following persons were elected officers of the Grand Lodge for the ensuing year: W. H. McConnel, M. W. G. Master; J. L. Weekly, D. D. G. Master; N. E. Perkins, R. W. G. Warden; R. B. Barry, R. G. Secretary; R. B. Thompson, R. W. G. Treasurer; H. B. Todd, R. W. Grand Chaplain; Thomas T. Smiley, Grand Representative to Grand Lodge of the United States.

The Baltimore Difficulty.
The telegraphic dispatches published yesterday morning, says the Nashville Dispatch, of the 7th, announced that the Baltimore difficulty, which has attracted so large a share of the attention of the country for several days past, has been temporarily arranged through the intervention of Gen. Grant, in his capacity as a private citizen. The terms of the arrangement are a concession by each party, but they can be regarded in no other light than a defeat of Gov. Swann.

WANTED.—Boarding and lodging with a quiet family, in or near town, by man and wife. Apply at this office. [Nov. 9.]

Consolidation.
The Stockholders of the Tennessee & Alabama, Central Southern and Tennessee & Alabama Central Railroad Companies are hereby notified that the Directors of these companies, having agreed upon terms of Consolidation, under the name and style of the Nashville & Decatur Railroad Company, an election will be held at Columbia, Tenn., on Wednesday, Nov. 21st, for fifteen Directors in the said Nashville & Decatur Railroad Company.

Oct. 24, 1866. JOHN BAIRD, Sec'y.
It is earnestly desired that every stockholder should be represented, and for this purpose an extra train will carry stockholders to and from Columbia on the day of meeting. It is urged also that holders of scrip should convert the same into stock at once, and attend the meeting either in person or by proxy.
